

The New Jersey Neuropsychological Society (NJNS)

presents our first semi-annual half day program:

Neuropharmacology at the Crossroads of Cognitive, Behavioral, and Psychiatric Treatment of Neurologic Conditions

Jonathan Fellus, M.D.

Behavioral Neurologist

Kessler Institute for Rehabilitation (KIR), West Orange, NJ

Dr Fellus, who has become renowned for his cutting edge application of neuropharmacology with individuals with acquired brain injuries, has presented in many settings, including the Brain Injury Association of New Jersey. In this presentation to an audience of neuropsychologists, psychologists and colleagues in related disciplines, including Physiatry, Psychiatry and Neurology, he will discuss his experiences with these interventions with individuals at different phases of neurologic recovery and neurorehabilitation. Integration of pharmacotherapies with other aspects of neurorehabilitation will be discussed and there will be opportunity for discussion at the end of the presentation in our small group setting.

Friday, March 14, 2008
