

The New Jersey Neuropsychological Society (NJNS)

presents our semi-annual half day program:

Psychological and Cognitive Effects of Seizure Disorders Across the Lifespan

Kenneth Perrine Ph.D.

Director of Neuropsychology
Northeast Regional Epilepsy Group, Hackensack, NJ

Dr. Perrine will provide neuropsychologists/psychologists with information on the major types of seizure disorders which impact people across the lifespan. In addition, he will identify risks for developing psychological problems from epilepsy as well as identify types of cognitive deficits that can occur from epilepsy.
